TOURIST ATTRACTIONS:

Sapa

- Mount Fansipan - is the highest mountain in Vietnam and Indochina peninsula, located in the Hong Lien Son mountain range.
- Cat Cat Village - is a Black H'mong small mountain village. People live in Cat Cat village do rice cultivation in terraces and the traditional crafts. The road leading to Cat Cat Village is an easy, interesting route for trekking and the hike through mountains will offer tourists the wonderful picture of terraces, water fall, or even water buffaloes grazing leisurely.
- Rong May Glass Bridge - is located at the Heaven Gate on the top of the beautiful O Quy Ho pass with a height of more than 2200m above sea level, about 16km from Sapa town and 7km from Fansipan cable car to the west. This is an integrated tourist complex.
- Moana Sapa - has a total area of about 10,000 square meters. Here visitors not only admire the majestic beauty of Hoang Lien Son mountain range and Fansipan mountain peak, but Moana Sapa will take you from these interesting things to other unexpected experiences.

Hanoi

- Water Puppet Show - the puppets are made out of wood and then lacquered. The shows are performed in a waist-deep pool. A large rod supports the puppet under the water and is used by the puppeteers, who are normally hidden behind a screen, to control them. Thus the puppets appear to be moving over the water. Today's Vietnamese water puppetry is a unique variation on the ancient Asian puppet tradition.
- Ba Dinh Square - It is the name of a famous square in Hanoi where president Ho Chi Minh read the Proclamation of Independence of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam.
- Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum Residence - When Ho Chi Minh died, the granite Chi Minh Mausoleum was built here to display his embalmed body. It remains a major site of tourism and pilgrimage.
- One Pillar Pagoda - This is a historic Buddhist temple in Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam. It is regarded alongside the Perfume Temple, as one of Vietnam's two most iconic temples.
